Aufgabe II Leseverstehen

II A True/ False/ Not in the text: Fitness made easy

Step 1: Read the text

Fitness made easy

Bild: D. Gudjons

Lots of people struggle with staying healthy and keeping their body fit. I read a lot of fitness articles and blogs and see a lot of complicated advice and tips. It is hard to know which ones are right as everyone seems to say something different. In everyday life, it can be difficult to follow the tips they give as other things like work or school get in the way.

Every magazine has “experts” who argue for entirely different methods of keeping healthy or slim. Some say that you should ban white bread, pasta and rice from your diet. Some say not to eat any sugar at all. Others say that you should stick to meat such as chicken and eggs because they have more protein and less fat. Another article will say completely the opposite, telling you to eat whatever you like in small amounts.

As for exercise, it is a similar story. Everyone claims something different. Some say that walking is the best exercise. Somewhere else it will say that walking doesn't help at all and you need to go running regularly. People who do bodybuilding and lift weights laugh at those who do cardio exercises such as jogging. My friends say that playing competitive sports such as basketball and football is the best way to keep in shape. You'll hear a million variations of how to exercise best: when to eat, what to eat, how much to eat, when to exercise, how long to exercise for, what extra help you need to stay healthy, etc.

Reading all of these articles telling you different things is enough to make you feel like giving up. However, in reality, it doesn't have to be that complicated. In fact, there are just two simple rules you need to follow, both of which are equally important:

1. Work out or exercise regularly

and

2. Eat real, wholesome foods in moderate amounts (even sweets are allowed sometimes).

Erster allgemeinbildender Schulabschluss Englisch
Hinweise und Beispiele zu den zentralen schriftlichen Prüfungsaufgaben

I am sure that if you stick to these two rules, and keep it up for at least a month; you'll notice an improvement and start getting fit. You can still be healthy just by following one of the rules (not always!) but you may not have the body that you want. If you do both, you are on track to a healthier and fitter life.

Text: Rachel Moore, im Auftrag der BSB, 19.12.2013

Step 2: True / False / Not in the text.

- Decide if the statements are true / false / not in the text.
- Mark the correct box (x).

		true	false	not in the text
0.	Most people have no problem staying fit and healthy.		X
1	Almost all magazines have fitness experts who tell you different things.
2	Everyone agrees that you should never eat sugar.
3	My friends think that weightlifting is the best way to get fit.
4	Eating fish is vital to staying healthy.
5	There are only two rules you should follow.
6	The first rule is the most important one.
7	The second rule says that you should eat food in moderation.
8	It is impossible to only follow one of the rules and be healthy.
9	It is always better to exercise outdoors than inside.

II B Matching: Safety Instructions

- Please match the pictures with the correct texts. There are more pictures than you need.
- Write the letters in the boxes below the pictures.

Aufgabe III Sprachmittlung

Bei dieser Aufgabe geht es nicht um die wörtliche Übersetzung, sondern um die passende Wiedergabe auf Deutsch (auch in Stichwörtern). Manchmal gibt es mehrere Möglichkeiten, die Aussage zu formulieren. Entscheide dich für eine Möglichkeit.

Situation: Du bist mit deiner Familie und eurem Hund Lucky auf einem Zeltplatz im „Yosemite National Park“ in Kalifornien angekommen. Euer Auto steht auf dem Parkplatz. Ihr habt eine Informationsbroschüre über Bären bekommen. Deine Eltern verstehen nicht alles. Bitte beantworte ihre Fragen auf Deutsch.

Yosemite National Park Camping Information

Bears

Yosemite National Park is the home of a large and healthy bear population. Bears have an instinctive fear of humans. Unfortunately, they overcome their fear and try to get human food in the park. They become aggressive and can damage cars, trailers, tents, ice boxes, and other camping equipment while searching for human food. When bears become too aggressive, they often have to be killed. To stop this make sure that food is stored properly.

You Can Save A Bear's Life

- ✓ Store all food in bear proof containers, which you can rent or buy (e.g. at the Yosemite Valley Sports Shop).
- ✓ Bears recognize ice boxes and cans, so store them the same as food.
- ✓ If you have no bear proof containers, put all food out of sight in your car trunk.
- ✓ Also, store shopping bags, garbage, and cosmetics as well as soap, sunscreen, body lotion, shampoo, hairspray, and toothpaste.
- ✓ Store food day and night.
- ✓ Bears may enter campsites or picnic areas during the day, even if people are there. And they may try to get into your tent when they smell soap or lotion at night.

If You Meet A Bear

- ✓ When hiking in a group, talk in a calm voice. When the bear hears you it may retreat.
- ✓ If you meet a bear, act immediately: throw small stones towards it from a safe distance. Make a noise: yell or clap hands.

Hiking In Bear Country

- ✓ Let someone know where you are going and when you are planning to return.
- ✓ Don't take pets; they may attract bears to you.
